

Maud Page

Deputy Director and Director of Collections, Art Gallery of New South Wales

Maud Page joined the Gallery in 2017 as Deputy Director and Director of Collections. She was previously Deputy Director, Collection and Exhibitions at the Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art (QAGOMA), Brisbane. She played a key leadership role in formulating the museum's strategic direction and was instrumental in the realisation of major exhibitions and projects, including the Asia Pacific Triennials of Contemporary Art. Her former role as Senior Curator of Pacific Art saw her develop the most comprehensive collection of contemporary Pacific art in the region.

Ms Page oversees the development and direction of the Gallery's collections. She is responsible for the management and operation of the Gallery's acquisition program, the conservation and display of the collection, curatorial content and development of exhibitions and the Gallery's extensive research archive. As Deputy Director, she is responsible for the curatorial direction for the Gallery's expansion, the Sydney Modern Project.
