

Tamara McCrossen-Orr

Director Environmental Sustainability and Compliance
Los Angeles World Airports

Ms. McCrossen-Orr is the Director of Environmental Sustainability and Compliance for Los Angeles World Airports – owner and operator of Los Angeles International Airport, Van Nuys general aviation airport, and LAWA’s landholdings in Palmdale.

Ms. McCrossen-Orr has worked at LAWA since 2014. Under Ms. McCrossen-Orr, LAWA’s sustainability program has achieved Airport Carbon Accreditation for both LAX and VNY airports, launched the Ground Support Equipment Emissions Reduction Program, revamped LAX’s Alternative Fuel Vehicle Program and recently released the Sustainability Action Plan for LAWA, Boldly Moving to Zero.

Prior to LAWA, Ms. McCrossen-Orr practiced law in the Los Angeles area with a focus on litigation.

Ian O'Hara

Deputy Director
Centre for Agriculture and the Bioeconomy
Queensland University of Technology

Ian is one of Australia’s leading experts in biofuels, bioenergy and bioproducts technologies and the development of the bio-based economy.

Ian has been appointed by the Queensland Government as the Queensland Biofutures Industry Envoy. As the Envoy, Ian provides strategic advice to government and assists in securing domestic and international investment to grow Queensland’s Biofutures sector.

Paul Scurrah
Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer
Virgin Australia

Paul has more than 25 years of leadership experience in the transport, logistics, travel and aviation sectors having previously been CEO of DP World Australia and Queensland Rail and held Executive Management roles at Aurizon, Flight Centre and Tourism Queensland.

Paul Scurrah was appointed Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer of Virgin Australia Group on 25 March 2019.

Andrew Parker
Group Executive, Government, Industry, International, Sustainability
Qantas Airways Limited

Andrew manages the Group's government, industry, public policy, regulatory, international affairs and sustainability worldwide.

Andrew is a board member of the peak advocacy group for airlines in the region - Airlines for Australia New Zealand (A4ANZ) – and is also a board member of IATA's industry committee and an Advisory Board Member of the Tourism & Transport Forum.

Before Qantas, Andrew was Senior Vice President – Public, International, Industry, Environment Affairs at Emirates, based in Dubai.

Andrew was previously the founder and Managing Director of a large public affairs firm that was acquired by the Ogilvy Group in 2001. He has also been a press secretary and senior political adviser to various Australian political leaders and Ministers and worked as a journalist in newspapers and television in Australia, the US and UK. He is Chairman of the NSW Australia Day Council.